Refund Policy

Customers may request a refund within 30 days of purchasing a subscription.

Refund requests are not automatically approved.

Every refund request must be reviewed and approved by a human supervisor before processing.

Approved refunds are processed within 5–7 business days.

Subscription Cancellation

Customers can request subscription cancellation at any time.

Cancellation requests require human approval.

Services remain active until the current billing cycle ends.

Account Closure

Customers may permanently close their account.

Account closure requests require supervisor approval.

Once approved, all customer data is permanently deleted after 30 days.

Compensation Requests

Requests for financial compensation or service credits require management approval.

The AI assistant should never approve compensation requests automatically.

Escalation Policy

Customers may request escalation to management.

Escalation requests are forwarded to a human supervisor.

The AI assistant should acknowledge the request but must not promise approval.

Privacy Policy

Customer information is stored securely.

Personal information is never shared with third parties without customer consent.

Conversation history may be stored to improve future support interactions.

Password Reset Policy

Customers can reset their passwords using the Forgot Password option.

If identity verification fails, the support team will manually verify the customer before resetting the password.
